

To whom it may concern:

I would like to take an opportunity to offer a formal recommendation for Liberty Group LLP.

I worked with Copp Media for over 3 years in the car parts and accessories business segment. As our spare parts and accessories supplier, Liberty Group LLP was able to help grow this segment of our business and produce significant innovation in automotive segments that our competitors.

Liberty Group LLP has directly distribution contracts with such a Great America's Company as Weathertech. Also Liberty Group LLP have a lot of direct delivery contract with industry leaders. This is help to provide them as first price in the market as the best after selling service.

I can recommend Liberty Group as a strong industry player and as one of the best supplier that proved its reliability for years.

Sincerely,

Nurlan Khamzin
